Dear Friends:

I am as busy as a bee. Consequently, I haven't time to write to you individually; inasmuch as, the same information is intended for you both, I am using the carbon to save time.

It is imperative that I see you both in Chicago on Saturday. I shall be stopping at the Southway or Grand and shall arrive in the forenoon. I shall like to see you together concerning the drawing of a simple contract for September 9th. I wonder if you can't get together and decide definitely what time I might see you. You still have time to let me know before I leave Detroit. You may reach me via air mail or telephone. My telephone number is Trinity 1-4949, and I am at home after 6:00 p.m.

No doubt, you know that I had 25,624 paid admissions on Sunday, and 4,000 in Flint. If you want to play in Flint Monday night, September 10, please let me know at once.

Yours in haste,

John R. Williams
